

What is there to discover in Schönebeck (Elbe)?

Schönebeck, the salt town on the blue ribbon of the Elbe, was first mentioned in a document in 1223 as

Throughout the centuries, salt has determined the history of the town of Schönebeck and its economic o

Germany?s oldest brine Salt parks saline spa (Solebad), which is located in Bad Salzelmen, has modern tr

In the guided tours of the town and tours with the night watchman you can find out all sorts of exciting fa

Salt history also comes Salt from the Krummkeule to Bad Salzelmen; if you want to know more, there is plent

Numerous traditional fest Weeks and markets, concert series, exhibitions and cabaret evenings fill up the to

A cultural highlight that a Schönebeck Open Air Orchestra (Schönebecker Open Air Orchester) on the B
This event, at which the Central German Chamber Philharmonic (external link) performs, is an unforgettab

A wide variety of sporting activities is available in Schönebeck e.g. gliding, horse-riding, clay pigeon sho

A particular attraction for cyclists is the Elbe Cycle Route.

It combines physical activity in the fresh air with opportunities to visit places of cultural and historical inte

It is possible to transfer from bike to canoe, so as to be able to explore the unique landscape of the Elbe

Special features that are Pretzien Music Summer route (Pretzien Musik Sommer) Ruhle Pretzien, Schönebeck

The Plötzky >> - Pretzien >> lake district on the east bank o

Numerous idyllic woodland lakes with a well-established tourist infrastructure are ideal for bathing, diving. Anglers get their money's worth on the Alte Elbe.

That is where the beaver has his territory, which he shares with the kingfisher and other species.

There are also plenty of restaurants and pubs >> for relaxing as well as places to stay >> for the night.

Those who enjoy hearty, substantial meals can set out on a voyage of culinary discovery in the region.

Traditional dishes are still made, such as Schotenklump (a soup made of spare ribs and peas), Zwiebelk

The crowning glory of cuisine from the Magdeburger Börde region ? and one which is recommended by

If you have any questions and/or remarks with regard to leisure and tourism in and around our town you

Contact